1964 COMMONER

PUBLISHED BY THE JUNIOR CLASS

BRYAN COLLEGE

DAYTON, TENNESSEE

When the years have closed around us,

Memory's scroll will then unfold

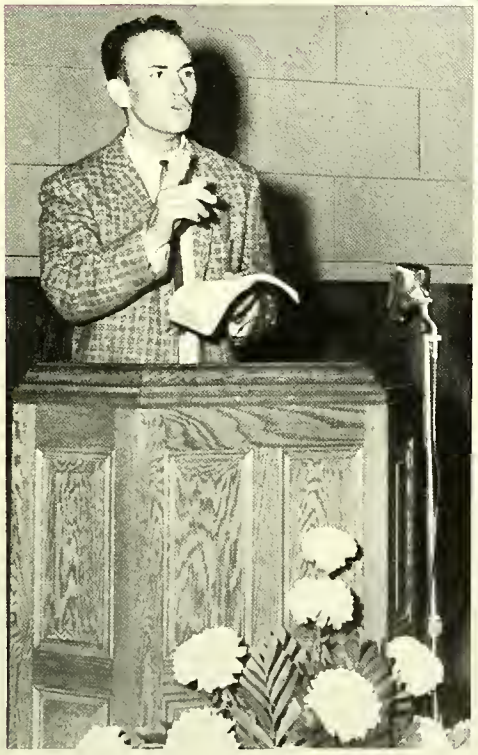
On the hours we've spent at Bryan,
'Neath the red and gold.

By our motto we firmly stand:



CHRIST

ABOVE

ALL.

Hail to thee,

our

Alma Mater,

Hail

OUR BRYAN,

Hail!

LOOKING UNTO JESUS

ACADEMICALLY 20

SOCIALLY 64

ATHLETICALLY 82

SPIRITUALLY 98

"Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, LOOKING UNTO JESUS, the author and finisher of our faith;"

Bryan is not simply preparation for life; Bryan is life. By every aspect of campus activity--studies, clubs, parties, inspirational services--our characters are being molded. In Jesus Christ alone we find our strength and purpose for living. From day to day we are learning that every new experience through which He takes us is but another step to the one thing toward which He prods us--an understanding of Himself.

DEDICATED to ARTHUR MEYER

" . . . be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord."

I Corinthians 15:58

The steadfast consistency of your life has been an inspiration to us.

In the classroom we have found your vital interest to be contagious as you made meaningful to us the facts and formulas of science.

Outside the classroom we have been encouraged by your participation in student affairs and have depended many times upon your practical advice.

In appreciation for your contributions to our life at Bryan, we gratefully dedicate this, the 1964 Commoner, to you, Mr. Arthur Meyer.

Mr. Meyer at home with his daughter, Miriam, and his wife.

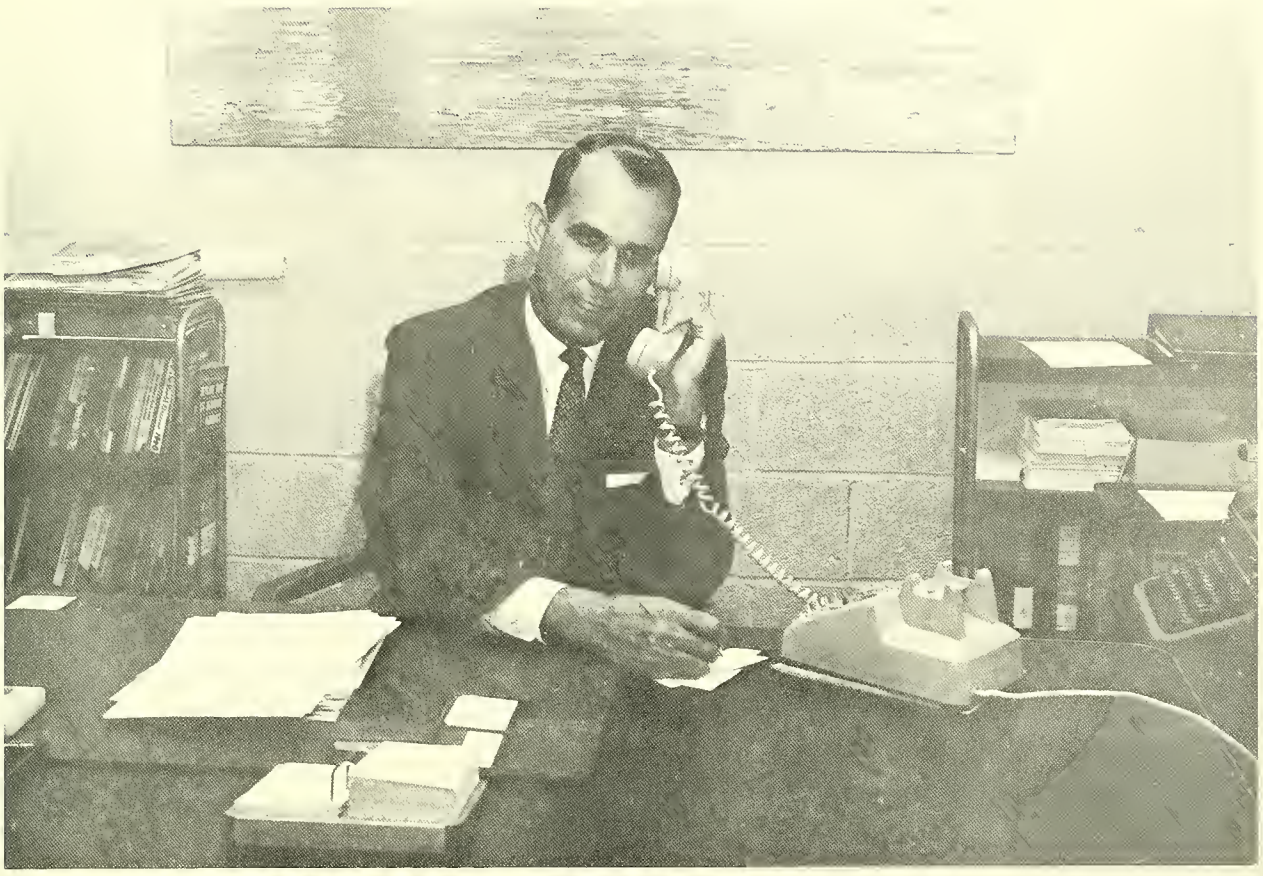
ADMINISTRATION



Theodore C. Mercer
B.A., M.A., Litt. D.
President

Perhaps the greatest advantage of a small college is the vital interest in and concern for individual students that are characteristic of Bryan's administrative personnel. Though pressed by many responsibilities, including the arrangement of class schedules and academic programs and the management of financial resources, they are never too busy to share with the students helpful advice and warm encouragement. In carrying out their duties of leadership, they set worthy examples of Christian living.

Bryan's student government is headed by the Student Council, composed of two members selected by each class and three officers elected at large.

The council functions primarily as a representative agent between the administration and student body, promoting the interests of both groups. They are also responsible for planning the annual "Big and Little Brother and Sister" events, high school guest weekend, and campus clean-up day.

Lois Zartman, Leslie Stone, Onalee Gerard, Wayne Dixon, Kirby Heglar, Walt Reichner.

WHO'S WHO

Seniors selected for recognition in the publication "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges" are chosen on the basis of scholastic achievement, participation and leadership in extracurricular activities, school citizenship, service to the college, and promise of future usefulness. The Bryan committee also takes into consideration the spiritual life and testimony of each student.

ACADEMICALLY

"...the prudent man LOOKETH well to his going. Wisdom resteth in the heart of him that hath understanding:"

Proverbs 14:15, 33

BIBLE

In addition to instruction for all students, majors in Bible are offered to meet the needs of those who intend to pursue further training in Bible or to enter some specific field of Christian service after graduation. By means of charts, analyses, and term papers, independent Bible study is taught and encouraged.

In all your studying, study the BIBLE! Here "there is no mere once-upon-a-time but a now, no simple yesterday but a today, no mere concern with the beyond but a God-permeated interest with this life."

Firmly believing that an understanding of the past is the key to our future, Bryan's teachers constantly seek to bring into focus with current events the vital facts and important theories of history.

Instruction offered in this department enables a student either to earn a Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in history or simply to fulfill the general education requirements in history and social studies.

LANGUAGE

Bryan's linguistic diet is served by authentic gourmets as each of the modern language instructors has worked in a foreign country where he lived in the language that he teaches now. Majors are offered in Spanish and French.

Ancient languages are brought to life by the enthusiastic presentations of Dr. Anderson.

SCHOLARSHIP STUDENTS

The scholarship students pictured above wish to take this opportunity to say THANK YOU to Bryan for the financial assistance given them by the school during this year.

Scholarships are awarded to students on the basis of academic excellence, participation in athletics, and good will. High-school valedictorians and salutatorians and other students with commendable scholastic records are eligible for academic honors. Athletic grants are distributed to fellows of outstanding ability in basketball or baseball. Good will gifts are presented to students of superior citizenship.

PRESIDENT'S RECEPTION

HOMECOMING

Homecoming weekend was combined this year with the annual Foreign Missions Fellowship conference with several missionary alumni taking part in both programs.

"Sharing Our Godly Heritage" was chosen as the theme for the conference, and we were challenged again and again to "... continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them; and that from a child thou hast known the holy Scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

CHRISTMAS 1963

There may be no place like home for the holidays, but Bryan is a wonderful place to be just before they begin. Decorations line the halls, and carols are sung in the dining hall each evening, reminding us that the joy in which we live is ours because of that first Christmas.

"LOOK unto Me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else."

CHRISTIAN SERVICE ASSOCIATION

The George E. Guille Christian Service Association, named in honor of Bryan's first president, is a religious extension department of the College. Its activities include weekly Bible teaching in the Rhea County schools, child evangelism classes, house-to-house witnessing, jail visitation, and the work of the Christian Home League. Participation is voluntary, and a large percentage of students take part in some phase of the CSA program.

ABOVE: Joyce Jiles, CSA secretary; Mr. Eckel, sponsor.

Students leave to teach their released-time classes.

ABOVE: CSA Officers: Ron Barfield, president; Donna Beets, secretary-treasurer; John Eastman, vice-president.

Larry and Ken spend time in the Word and in prayer each Sunday afternoon before going to conduct a personal evangelism program in the county jail.

FOREIGN MISSIONS FELLOWSHIP

"Life up your eyes, and LOOK on the fields; for they are white already to harvest."

John 4:35b

A look at the total program of world evangelism is afforded students through the Foreign Missions Fellowship. With assistance from the Bryan Alumni Association, this group sponsors the annual missionary conference.

Fourteen other colleges in the southeastern states have similar FMF chapters, and regional conferences are held each fall and spring at Toccoa, Georgia.

ABOVE: FMF council members are--STANDING: Bob Marsh, president. FIRST ROW: Bob Crane, Asian prayer band leader; Bonnie Hubert, treasurer; Marlene Schaiper, secretary; Don Crane, European leader. Well-known in Dayton and the surrounding area, the Bryan College Choir has a fine reputation. Many hours of practice precede each performance, and programs are presented not only at Bryan, but also in many local high schools. During spring vacation the group toured several northern states.

GOSPEL MESSENGERS

SEATED: Karen Worrell, Dot Sides, Janet Miller. STANDING: Gary Allen, Mr. Hill, Dennis Williams.

Gospel Messengers, special music groups sent out to represent the college, travel frequently on weekends and during spring or summer vacations to present programs for churches and other organizations. Although hours of practice are required for Gospel team members, the work is most rewarding. Students make new friends in many areas of the country and have countless opportunities to witness for the Lord Jesus.

SEATED: Jeanie Stevens. STANDING: Sandie Oswalt, Joyce VanderVeer, Faye Smith.

CHAPEL

"Life up your eyes to the heavens and LOOK upon the earth beneath: for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner: but My salvation shall be forever, and My righteousness shall not be abolished."

Isaiah 51:6

Heart-warming experiences, brought by the working of the Holy Spirit in songs, messages, and quiet moments, have been ours as we met each morning for chapel. Treasures from the Word, found often during these services, will be sources of strength and encouragement for us throughout life and eternity.

ABOVE: Judy, Walter, Winston, and Peggy add inspiration in song.

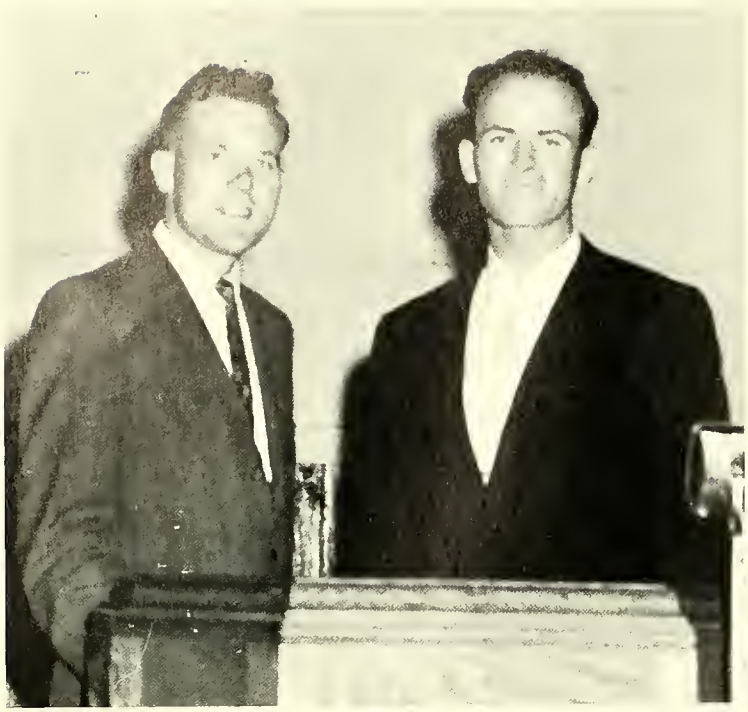
BELOW: Mr. Park challenges students to "grow up" in Christian living.

RIGHT: Students are encouraged to take part in chapel programs. Ron Barfield spoke for the Christian Service Association.

BELOW: Visiting speaker, Mr. Blount, brought with him a scale model of the Tabernacle, and his vivid illustrations brought to life the symbolism in it.

RIGHT: Dave Llewellyn makes a free long-distance call. When a direct distance dialing system was set up in Dayton, a demonstration was presented for students during the chapel hour.

SPIRITUAL LIFE SERVICES



Jim Reese and Ken Campbell

A series of spiritual life services opens each school year. Bryan alumni Ken Campbell and Jim Reese, a Canadian evangelistic team, led the meetings this fall.

"Jim Reese" and "trombone" are almost synonymous at Bryan. Students looked forward to hearing him play.

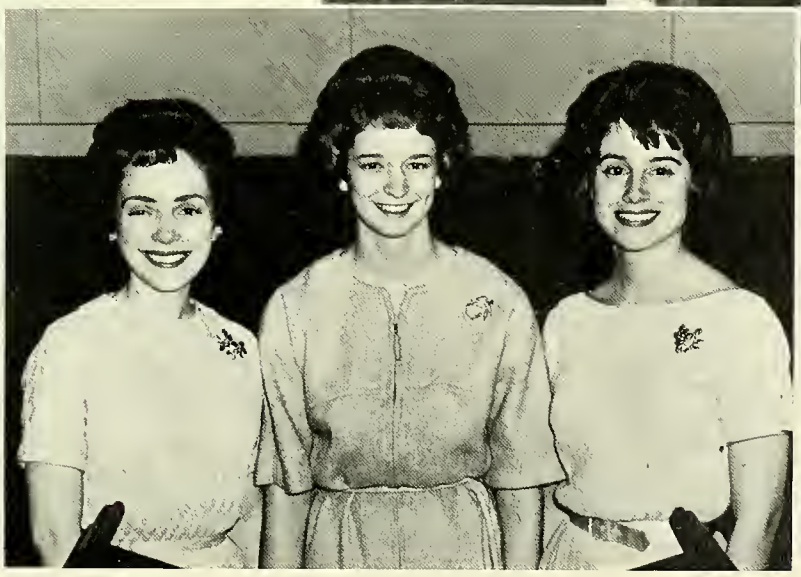
Gospel Messengers sang "Ring the Bells of Heaven."

BIBLE CONFERENCE

Since the second year of the school's existence, Bible Conference has been an important feature of the College year. During this week of special services, all class work is suspended. Dr. Sanden, of Minnesota, was the main speaker this year.

Dr. Sanden

Mr. Hill led the congregation in singing at the opening service of the Bible Conference.



A message in song by Judy, Rosemary, and Carol.

"ESTABLISH THOU THE WORK"

"Lord, Thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations . . . let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us: and establish Thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish Thou it."

Psalm 90:1, 17

1964 has been a record year in the history of Bryan College. Two new dormitories, accommodating 100 students each, have been constructed near the north end of the Administration building. Students moved into the new buildings in the early spring. Old dorm areas will soon be converted into classrooms and practice rooms.

On November 29, 1963, Mrs. E. B. Arnold was honored at a community-wide dinner marking her fiftieth year in business in Dayton. Mrs. Arnold is a native of Bowling Green, Kentucky, and a graduate of Western Kentucky State College of that city. Before her marriage to the late E. B. Arnold of Dayton, she taught school for two years. Beginning with a variety store in the front of her late husband's Coca Cola business in 1913, she soon expanded it into a fashionable women's department store, which still attracts customers from all over East Tennessee. In the thirties and forties, Mrs. Arnold operated branch stores in Harriman, Lenoir City, and Knoxville, Tennessee.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Arnold were associated with Bryan College from its inception. At the time of his death in 1948, Mr. Arnold had served as secretary of the Board of Trustees for thirteen years. Mrs. Arnold accepted the position of trustee in 1949 and has served as a member of the Executive Committee for many years.

A modest woman who shrinks from publicity, Mrs. Arnold is widely known and admired, however, by people in business, education, and religious circles. She combines shrewd business sense with a devotion to work which has made her a leader in the business community. She has been active as a Sunday School teacher for nearly fifty years. Many of her former students are missionaries and Christian workers. As a salute to Mrs. Arnold's abiding interest in education and young people, the Mrs. E. B. Arnold Award is made annually at Bryan to the graduating senior in teacher education rated as the outstanding student teacher. She is known for her generous support to a wide variety of causes. We honor ourselves in seeking to honor a woman of such genteel Christian character and achievement.
